

JUNIOR RESEARCHER MENTORING PROGRAMME 2022

Code:	JRMP2022_35
School / Department:	Department of English and Communication
Name of Research Leader:	Dr Margo Turnbull, Research Assistant Professor
Research Topic:	Communication at the End of Life: An Exploration of Communication Practices in Hong Kong
Short Description of the Research Project:	Effective communication with individuals and families during end-of-life care is an important ethical and medical objective. This research project is examining how carers and professionals engage in a variety of communication practices during this period. To date, most research has focused on how medical information (such as diagnosis or prognosis) is communicated. This project expands the focus to non-medical information. Research on this topic involves careful consideration of social and cultural values in relation to end-of-life care. Participating students will be engaged in reviewing documents and literature that reflect how end-of-life care and communication practices have developed in recent decades in Hong Kong.
No. of Places Offered:	2
Frequency of Meetings:	Bi-weekly

* The information presented above is subject to change.