

Subject Code	APSS2682
Subject Title	Generic Social Work Practice with Groups, Organizations and Communities
Credit Value	3
Pre-requisite / Co-requisite/ Exclusion	Nil
Objectives	This subject aims at enabling students to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• use the construct “Person-in-situated-context” in assessing problems and issues confronting service users who come forth as a group, community or organization.</li> <li>• identify the part played by different social structures, from the political economy, social institutions, ideologies, beliefs and normative practices, to historical development and culture in constituting the identity and consciousness of service users as well as themselves as social workers.</li> <li>• apply the general process model in helping them to design an intervention plan aiming at helping a group, an organization and a community.</li> <li>• analyze and identify multi-levels of engagement and entry points and furthermore, justify with theoretical backups why a particular level is most appropriate.</li> <li>• identify and describe the principles of relational modalities in working with a group, an organization and a community confronting difficulties and being trapped in social problems.</li> <li>• explain and formulate the different tasks and roles that they themselves as social workers are going to play in applying the general process model in working with a group or community in an organizational context.</li> </ul>