BSE Students Awarded The Hong Kong Institution of Engineers – Building Services Division (HKIE-BSD) Outstanding Student Award

The Department of Building Services Engineering (BSE) of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University (PolyU) is pleased to announce that three BSE students, namely Leung Chun Kuen, Li Haiwei and Chan Chun On, have been awarded The Hong Kong Institution of Engineers – Building Services Division (HKIE-BSD) Outstanding Student Award in 2018/19.

This Award aims to recognize students with good academic results studying a bachelor degree, associate degree or higher diploma in Building Services Engineering together with proven records of extra-curricular activities and to encourage them to pursue their careers in the profession.

The awardees have been invited to the award presentation during the HKIE - BSD Annual Dinner on 14 May 2019 to share the happiness.
