

Internship Field: Engineering
Job ID: DU013

Engineering

Internship Dynamics

Location: Dublin, Ireland

Length: 1 position between June to August for 6 weeks

Overview on the Organisation

At the company's 17,000 sq ft headquarters, the Sales Department manages sales in our Dublin, Cork, Newry & International locations it is also the main centre for our design engineering and our precision manufacturing operations. Our large Fabrication and welding projects are completed at our 6,000 sq ft plant in Dublin 11. We also have a sales network covering the midlands of England, Europe, and the USA.

Duties

We take interns that have skills in design and drawing software. We use solid works and autocad and many other viewer software packages.

The skills in our Engineering office such as Cad drawing (solid works), design projects, purchasing of raw materials,(Steel bar and Engineering plastics)Using our sales software to prepare and make the Engineering Specification for production, (The work shop package), some work in our Quality department checking dimensions on machined parts and regarding our ISO 9000 system surveillance and updates, Assembly set up for new products, work on the shop floor operating CNC machines & conventional machines, exposure to designing small welding/ fabricating projects and their supervision on the workshop.

Application Deadline

24th January 2025 (Friday)