

Internship Field: Environment
Job ID: NZ006

Environment

Internship Dynamics

Location: Auckland, New Zealand

Length: 2 positions between June to August for 6 weeks

Overview on the Organisation

We are an industry organisation dedicated to a sustainable built environment. Our vision is promoting the standards and developments of sustainable buildings. People can live, work and play in healthy, efficient and productive buildings in a sustainable environment.

Brief Duties for reference:

- Assistance with the business-as-usual operations related to the certification
- Assistance with rating tool review and development projects
- Assistance with the development or maintenance of technical tools and templates
- Tracking of project data and statistics
- Research projects related to the rating tools and certified buildings
- Development of marketing materials and/ or case studies

Application Deadline

24th January 2025 (Friday)