What is EUROACE?

EUROACE is an academic organization founded and based in Valencia, Spain. We focus on providing high quality courses for students, academic groups and young professionals, on a global level. Our Online Courses include Spanish Language Courses for all ages and ability levels, and Online Internships for students and professionals looking to gain international business experience.

EUROACE SPANISH LANGUAGE COURSES

We welcome all nationalities, ability levels and age groups to our Online Spanish Courses. You can opt for group classes learning alongside international students or individual classes if you prefer a more personal learning style.

Our courses open up the expertise of native Spanish teachers based in Valencia, Spain to students anywhere in the world who are eager to learn Spanish and improve their language skills!

Accredited Classes

Euroace Spanish Courses are delivered by highly-qualified instructors, tailored to suit the student's ability level and academic objectives. A certificate of completion is presented to the student at the end of their course, signed by our School Director and demonstrating the level of Spanish reached by the student.

Beginner to Advanced Levels

We offer courses from absolute beginner level to advanced level. In order to measure the student's level prior to the course, we ask them to complete a standardized level test as well as learning of their Spanish background. We then sign them up for the most suitable course for their level and monitor their individual progress accordingly.

Euroace Online Spanish courses provide an exceptional alternative to traditional language schools via dynamic, interactive and up to date educational learning tools. Our Online Courses are well-suited to students seeking to improve speaking and listening abilities.

Native Teachers

All Euroace Spanish Courses are taught by our skilled and certified native teachers, who strive to deliver an international and cultural experience in every class. Native courses are the best way to learn the true ins and outs of a language, and on top of this, you'll get to dive into the Spanish culture at first hand! It's a unique and effective way to learn and enhance your Spanish abilities.

What Can I Expect?

Expect to work

Sounds simple enough but it's true. Just because you are working from home and not commuting to the office each day, doesn't mean the tasks or responsibilities are reduced. You will have plenty of work and you'll need to be organized and efficient to keep up with it.

Expect lengthy professional meetings

Perhaps you're in a team meeting or a lengthy discussion. Even if all matters being discussed do not concern your position, remember you are there to learn, grow and be part of the team.

Expect communication challenges

Your supervisor and colleagues are not native English speakers. Spanish is their first language. Respect this and do your best to communicate and understand the business concepts discussed. And why not brush up your Spanish skills in the process?

Expect to work in a diverse team

You'll be working with a new team from a new culture, so expect to talk to a wide spectrum of people. These people will most likely have different values, ethics and personalities to you. Be professional and open.

Expect variety

Expect to receive a variety of jobs and a couple of main projects. Your initial tasks could involve market research or data input, with tasks progressing as the placement evolves and the supervisor gets to see your capabilities in relation to company demands. If you have a certain number of required hours, expect to complete these hours working hard for your internship company.

Expect to assume responsibilities

It's a real world business position, and so don't expect things to be easy. Your supervisor is surely going to trust you with important tasks and duties, so remember be responsible and committed to your position.

Expect to behave professionally

We expect all of our interns to behave in a professional and responsible manner. Communicating with respect, managing workload efficiently, being punctual when it comes to deadlines etc. As a virtual intern you are required to be available for contact, Monday through Friday, so that your company can utilize your services and also so you are able to make the most of your work experience. We ask that you assume your position with dedication, professionalism and enthusiasm.
