Overview on the Organisation

We are a content creation agency providing services from campaign conceptualization, live stream, video production, photography, real time content creation and live editing. Our agile team will walk from concept to execution with our clients and deliver content that is innovative, current and impactful. Our team comprises of creative, talented and passionate directors, designers, strategists, photographers and editors. Together we create brand experiences that help companies establish their voice, elevate their brands and reach their audiences. Our work is renowned for its creativity, and its ability to drive action.

We have worked with a variety of companies such as skin care brand Clinique, retail giant Asos and shoes brand UGG. From established to start ups. Since 2017 we've helped some of the world's most influential brands stand up, stand out and project their voice.
