To: Research Postgraduate (RPg) students of the 2022/23 cohort
c.c.   FRC/SB Chairs and Secretaries
         D/SRC Chairs and Secretaries
         OUS colleagues concerned
         GS colleagues
From: Graduate School
Date: 7 September 2022

Dear RPg students

RPg students from the 2022/23 cohort onwards are required to complete the e-learning module on "Understanding China and the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, P.R.C." and pass an assessment before thesis submission as a graduation requirement. Students are encouraged to complete the requirement as early as possible.

Please refer to the information provided by the Office of Undergraduate Studies (OUS) below for access to and completion of the e-learning module.

BlackBoard Course for the e-Learning module
Students could access the e-Learning module via Learn@PolyU. The course ID for research postgraduate students is listed below.

Group of postgraduate students	Course ID code	Course Name
Research Postgraduate	UCHKSAR_RPg_2022	Understanding China and the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, P.R.C. (RPg)

Subject Duration
Research postgraduate students are required to pass the e-Learning module before thesis submission. Multiple attempts are allowed for the assessment.

Leaflet for the e-Learning module
Students could access the relevant leaflet via the OUS Website for more details on the e-Learning module of "Understanding China and Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, P.R.C." as below.

Programme	OUS Website – National Education
Research Postgraduate	Education on "Understanding China and the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, P.R.C." for Research Postgraduate Programmes

Enquiries
Please contact OUS via (ous.enq@polyu.edu.hk) if you have any queries.

Thank you.

Graduate School