Dear Dr Ahmed Tarek El-Said

University of Warwick (005132965)

We are pleased to confirm that the CIPS accreditation of the following programme for the academic year 2024-25:

MSc in Supply Chain & Logistics Management (CRS-01685)

As a special consideration for transitional arrangements, please also take this letter as confirmation that students from the Hong Kong campus who may have completed the previous variant of this programme (P-H1SD) over this year will also be accepted for MCIPS upgrades, provided they have fulfilled the conditions of the corresponding accreditation Statement.

Please find enclosed the formal accreditation statement and CIPS certificate, which can be displayed within your institution for publicity and marketing purposes.

As part of CIPS accreditation, there are conditions that you, as the university, will need to ensure are fulfilled. These can be found on the CIPS accreditation statement. The conditions include guiding all students on the accredited programme to ensure they make the right module choices if their aspiration on completion of the programme is to achieve MCIPS.

Also, as part of the accreditation, CIPS currently offers a 12-month complimentary membership to those students undertaking this programme. If your students would like to take up this offer, they will need to join via the website, as an Affiliate Member.

The Benefits of Membership document included with this letter, is intended as a sharable promotion to your students, encouraging them to take advantage of this offer, and it includes the promo code for your university for this academic year:

- UNI-UK-WAR-25 - valid from 1 September 2024 until 31 August 2025

We would like to take this opportunity to remind you that as well as completing the exact modules, units, or 'study pathway' that are accredited as detailed in the CIPS accreditation statement, students must meet the requirements for upgrade <http://www.cips.org/en-gb/membership/what-is-mcips/upgradetomcips/> in order for them to be eligible to apply for MCIPS on successful completion of your programme. It is very important that the students follow the CIPS approved accreditation statement to avoid delays in the MCIPS upgrade process and disappointment if their application is rejected.

Finally, we will list your contact details and the current accreditation programme details on our website.
<https://study.cips.org/>

We are keen to work with you to market your programme and its CIPS accreditation, so would also like to remind you that you can use the CIPS logo for accredited degrees on publicity material and course documentation for you to market the fact that the programme is CIPS accredited. If you would like further information, please contact us at accreditations@cips.org.

We are delighted that you have chosen to continue with your CIPS accreditation and look forward to working with you to continue to promote the value of the Procurement and Supply profession.

Yours sincerely,

Amanda Boustred
Professional Development Director
