

EGS (Asia) Ltd

Company Description

The EGS Group was founded in Hong Kong in 1974 and now has offices in Asia, Australia and the UK. The Hong Kong office specializes in hydrographic surveys, oceanography and marine environmental measurements for the public and private sector in the civil engineering, telecommunications and oil & gas industries. We invite application for the following position:

Graduate Surveyor (Marine Department)

- A Degree or a higher diploma in Surveying/Geomatics or in a relative discipline
- Hardworking, initiative and responsible
- Fresh graduates are welcome
- Willing to travel, work overseas in marine environment

We offer excellent career prospects with internal & external training to the right candidates. The competitive remuneration package includes 5-day work, 12-18 days annual leave, overseas allowance, bonus, dental, life & medical insurance amongst other benefits.

Interested parties, please email your full resume with expected salary and also date of availability to Personnel Department at personnel@egssurvey.com

Visit our web site at www.egssurvey.com

All personal data collected would be only used for recruitment purpose only