

Employer	Peak Reinsurance Company Limited www.peak-re.com
Function	Property & Casualty Underwriting
Job title	Intern
Working venue	15/F, WKCDA Tower, No.8 Austin Road West
Core work (not limited to)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Get familiar with current reporting tables • Learn basic factors that underwriter needs for market benchmarking study; build the data foundation, organize information and create charts • Data mining in current business submission for the information of interests for risk evaluation and aggregate control • Assisting manager to design and build a systematic and visual process to monitor risk accumulation • Underwriting process/operation support • Related business event support
Core Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Logical thinking and analytical mind • Strong MS Excel skills, with ability of coding in Excel Macro • Experience in data cleaning, data restructuring, and database setup • Experience in at least one: Python, SQL, R • Knowledge of different natural hazards, good understanding of scenarios of catastrophic damage • Basic concept of insurance or reinsurance
Background	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Science (Geoscience, Meteorology, Agriculture, Physics, etc), or • Engineering, or • Mathematics, Statistics, Actuarial, or • Computer science and programming, or • Insurance, Risk management
Language	As the candidate will be mainly dealing with the information in English and Simplified Chinese, reading and writing in both will be essential.
Position manager	Kun Cheng SVP P&C Underwriting, Head of Agriculture Underwriting
Close co-worker	Eric Cheung
Start date/duration	ASAP / Flexible
Working days per week	Minimum 3 full days or minimal 6 half days
Candidate	End of Year 2 or above
Contact	HR: Clara (clarayiu@peak-re.com) Function: Kun (kun@peak-re.com)