These programmes provide learning experience in various areas such as management, marketing, finance and accounting, economics, leadership, etc. where students will find practical innovative solutions to latest business issues. It also offers students the opportunity to expand their international professional networks with senior executives from different continents.
Intended Learning Outcomes	Upon completion of the subject, students will be able to: a. Elaborate new insights on subject matter beyond the MBA programme; b. Develop global perspective of the subject matters introduced by the provided institute; c. Develop insights into their roles as leaders in a global business environment.; As the content of this subject varies from year to year, students attending any of the programmes offered should visit websites of relevant institutions for further information.
Subject Synopsis/ Indicative Syllabus	The content offered by the partner institutions varies from year to year with themes such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Leading the Family Business;</li> <li>• Leadership Development;</li> <li>• Marketing and Strategy;</li> <li>• Business Management and Decision Making;</li> <li>• Innovation and Technology;</li> <li>• Accounting and Finance;</li> <li>• Economics and Corporate Governance;</li> <li>• Financial Risk Management;</li> <li>• Operations and Quality Management; and</li> <li>• Logistics and Supply Chain Management</li> </ul>
Teaching/Learning Methodology	Students will complete a programme at our international collaborations which may include Orchestrating Winning Performance (OWP) at IMD, the Executive Education Courses (EEC) at The London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE), the Executive Education programme at the Møller Institute, The University of Cambridge, and programmes at other renowned institutions. Final arrangements will be announced in due course.  By completing one written assignment, which will be assessed by a PolyU faculty member, MBA students completed one of the programmes offered by the collaborated institutions can earn up to 3 credits. Students can only attend one international collaboration programme for the duration of their MBA study.  The written assignment is in the form of an individual report, reflecting on what has been learned from the programme that students attended, with insights drawn from the seminars, lectures, reading materials, and the in-class discussions etc. The report is divided into two parts:

Part 1: A review of the course(s) and the associated readings of the chosen theme. Students are expected to demonstrate that they have acquired an in-depth understanding of the chosen theme. The reflection should incorporate a summary of the lectures, cases, articles and discussions, as well as a critical review of the key concepts and practices covered in the course(s) of the chosen theme.

Part 2: A personal reflection on the seminars or lectures that students attended, highlighting some key insights that can be applied to their current/future workplace.
