

Recruiting Facilitators for “Smoke-free Teens” Training Camp

About Hong Kong Council on Smoking and Health

Hong Kong Council on Smoking and Health (COSH) is a statutory body to protect and improve the health of the community by informing and educating the public on smoking and health matters; conducting and coordinating research into the cause, prevention and cure of tobacco dependence; and advising the Government, community health organizations or any public body on matters relating to smoking and health.

About “Smoke-free Teens” Training Camp

COSH has been organizing Smoke-free Teens Programme (formerly known as “Smoke-free Youth Ambassador Leadership Training Programme”) annually since 2012 to nurture teenagers to become future leaders in the society and to promote smoke-free culture. The training camp, as part of the programme, aims to train a group of Smoke-free Teens (Form 1-4 or aged 14-18) to take up the role of spreading and promoting smoke-free messages in their schools and community through organizing smoke-free activities. Participants will acquire various knowledge and skills through workshops, team building and adventure-based activities in the training camp.
