

Fashion Co-design Internship for Arts Development Fund for Persons with Disabilities

Institute of Textiles and Clothing of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University is seeking for fashion co-design intern to support the Arts Development Fund for Persons with Disabilities. The job duties, responsibilities and the key requirements are as follows:

Job Duties & Responsibilities

- Assist the Project Supervisor/ Project Assistant in planning and executing the project
- Provide logistic and administrative support for co-design workshops/ programmes
- Co-design fashion prototypes with the persons with disabilities
- Data collection through questionnaire surveys
- Provide editorial support for project publications/ promotional materials
- Assist in mini fashion show coordination/ production
- Contract period: Nov 2021 – April 2021
- No. of working hour: Negotiable / 120 (eligible WIE activity)

Key requirements

- ITC students
- Passionate in design, fashion, and social service
- Motivated and responsible, willing to interact with different people
- Sewing Technician will be appointed for technical support during the workshops

Interested students should send the application form (HR Form 7A - https://www.polyu.edu.hk/hro/job/en/form/hrform7A.doc) and CV to jin.lam@polyu.edu.hk by 31 December 2021.