

South Asia Group, as a key global manufacturer in textiles and apparel field, was established in 1963 in Hong Kong. The company has grown and expanded into a multinational conglomerate with a diverse array of holdings including textiles and apparel manufacturing, real estate development, property management and investment, as well as chain catering business.

Over the past 50 years, through the dedicated efforts of our high caliber teams, we have successfully established an international marketing network and manufacturing operations in Hong Kong, China, and Southeast Asia.

Adhering to the corporate philosophy of “Quality, Efficiency and Commitment”, South Asia Group is dedicated to provide the finest quality products and services for our customers. We are looking for high caliber and motivated individuals to join our fast-growing teams.

Join Us! Apply Now!

Graduate Trainee Program

In our 1-year Graduate Trainee Program, you will develop all-round talents in Textiles and Apparel Industry by acquiring sufficient knowledge, skills and experience in headquarter and site operations.

You will have exposure and gain experiences across different functions of the business:

1. Sales Department
2. Product and Development Department

What we offer

- On-the-job training at different sectors
- 6-months training to build solid foundations for the industry
- 1 -month factory on-site training to familiarize with manufacturing procedures
- Comprehensive managerial leadership development for personal and career development
- Opportunities to lead and perform in cross-functional projects
- Senior management mentoring and co-development with GT community
- Competitive salary package

Who We Are looking for

We are looking for final-year undergraduates or graduates with less than 1 year experience in majors of Merchandising, Fashion Design, or textile-related disciplines.

Join us if you possess the following qualities:

- Curiosity and eagerness to learn
- Strong interest and passion to grow and excel in textiles and Apparel industry
- Result-oriented and attention to details
- Team player with leadership potential
- Self-motivation to drive for excellence
- Great communication and interpersonal skills
- Fast learner with the ability to adapt to changing environments
- Excellent command of English and Chinese

Interested parties please submit your application with cover letter, resume, certificate, and transcripts to VanliaTsang@southasiagroup.com.

Data collected will be used for recruitment purpose only. Suitable candidates may be referred to other vacancies within our company.