

G/F, 78 Apliu Street, Sham Shui Po
+852 2861 0360 | info@redress.com.hk

Established in 2007, Redress is a pioneering HK-based NGO working to promote environmental sustainability in the fashion industry. Through our dynamic programmes we work directly with the next generation of fashion designers, industry professionals and consumers in order to reduce textile waste, minimise water and energy consumption and ultimately create a new circular economy for fashion.

VOLUNTEER WITH THE REDRESS EDUCATION TEAM

The Redress Education team is responsible for creating best-in-class educational content for fashion designers interested in exploring circular fashion and sustainable practices. The team delivers various content through the Redress Academy, the annual Pathway Course, and through the Redress Design Award Competition, our flagship project.

What can you expect to gain from volunteering with the Redress Education Team?

- Take part in impactful work to change the fashion industry practices by educating emerging designers on circular fashion
- Expand your knowledge on circular fashion, as a designer and as a consumer
- Keep in touch with the latest of sustainability in the fashion industry and fashion education
- Interact with emerging fashion designers
- Work in a fast paced environment, with driven, motivated and collaborative teams

YOUR MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES

- Research and build a database of sustainable and innovative materials.
- Contact suppliers to obtain relevant information and sample swatches.
- Organise materials and present as a portable material library for Redress.
- Research on specific topics related to circular fashion for the Redress Academy, events and annual magazine (e.g. industry news, innovative products, educational content etc)

YOU WILL ALSO HELP WITH

- Support and assist Redress and the Redress Design Award team events.
- Translate some Redress educational content, depending on the needs of the team and your language abilities
- Provide all-round assistance to the Education team

YOUR PROFILE

- Resourceful, creative thinker
- Detail-oriented
- Ambitious, willing to learn, and optimistic
- A passion for environmental sustainability and fashion

APPLY NOW

This volunteer position is open all year long, for a minimum of 4 weeks. Flexible schedules can be arranged.

Interested candidates should send their resume together with a cover letter to Pam Poon pam@redress.com.hk.