

About us

Inditex is one of the largest fashion distribution groups in the world. We have seven commercial brands: Zara, Pull&Bear, Massimo Dutti, Bershka, Stradivarius, Oysho, Zara Home. Inditex has corporate departments that support the different brands in transversal areas, helping them to always work in the most coordinated and optimal way.

Store management trainee 2023/24

Training Plan

What we expect from you

- Recent tertiary-educated graduates with major in Business or Fashion-related disciplines are welcomed
- Fresh graduate with high potential will also be considered
- Keen interest in developing a career in STORE operations
- Familiar with fashion trends
- Independent with good communication and interpersonal skills
- Logical, analytical and good problem solving skills
- Pleasant and able to work in fast pace environment
- Good command of written and spoken English & Chinese (Cantonese & Mandarin)
- Proficient PC skills in MS Office
- Experience in fashion retailing would be an advantage
- Station at store with 5 working days & shift duty are required

How we imagine you

You are passionate, curious, motivated, customer oriented and dynamic, with something different to contribute. You are detail-oriented, creative and proactive and are looking for a challenging yet rewarding career in fashion. You are able to multitask between your key responsibilities.

You love fashion, celebrate self-expression and enjoy transmitting this passion to the customers and employees. You have excellent analysis, prioritization and organizational skills. You shine in a fast-paced environment, where you can be yourself around talented people like you! At Inditex you will find more than a job.

Interested candidates, please send your full resume to recruitstore@hk.inditex.com or whatsapp to 9500 0105

At Inditex, More than a job!

INDITEX

<https://www.inditex.com>

<https://www.inditexcareers.com>