

Art Assistant Intern (Part Time Intern)

We are seeking an enthusiastic Art Assistant Intern to join our team at Lokki In Hurry. In this role, you will have the unique opportunity to work closely with fine artist Lokki throughout the entire exhibition process. You will gain valuable insights into every stage of creating an art exhibition, from the initial artistic concept to the execution of the event.

As an intern, you will learn about :

- The artistic creation process and how ideas evolve into tangible artworks
- Effective communication with galleries and stakeholders
- Marketing strategies for exhibitions, including the development of promotional materials
- The logistical aspects of exhibition management, from pre-production to opening night and throughout the duration of the show
- This internship will provide you with hands-on experience in the art and creative industry, equipping you with skills that range from conceptual development to practical event management.

Requirements:

- A passion for art and fashion
- A willingness to learn and explore new aesthetics
- A keen interest in observing the journey of art pieces from conception to completion
- Strong communication skills
- A dedicated and hardworking attitude
- Basic knowledge of Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, and InDesign

Your Responsibilities:

- Assist in the creation of artworks
- Manage administrative tasks and communication with various stakeholders, including galleries, collectors, brands, and suppliers
- Create visual materials to support upcoming exhibitions

If you are excited about the opportunity to immerse yourself in the world of art and contribute to meaningful exhibitions, we would love to hear from you!

To apply, please feel free to contact us via WhatsApp at +852 6533 6433, send your portfolio to lokki@lokki-in-hurry.com, or direct message us on Instagram at @mmmlok.

Application Deadline : 31 Oct 2024
