

Life-Story Service-Learning Project Reflection Worksheet

Name: _____ Class: _____ Student No.: _____

1 Project Overview

Write down the service-learning project details below.

Service Period
Service Location
Service Beneficiaries
No. of Service Recipients

2 Reflection

What?

- What did you do in this life-story service-learning project?
- How did you feel when the life-story service-learning project started?
- How many times have you met with [the service recipients]?
- What did you observe from [the service recipients]?
- What was the responses of [the service recipients] when you were interviewing them?
- What are your project deliverables?
- What outcomes did you achieve?

So What?

- How did you feel when you were interviewing [the service recipients]? Why?
- Did you feel surprised when you heard about [the service recipients]' experience? Why?
- What did you like / dislike about the service experience? Why?
- What impressed you the most when working with [the service recipients]? Why?
- What did you learn from interviewing [the service recipients]?
- What do you think was the most valuable / memorable / historical story that [the service recipients] experienced?
- How have your perceptions changed after interviewing [the service recipients]?

Now What?

 Social disconnection means elderly individuals may feel isolated, marginalised and disconnected from society, their work and their identity.

- To what extent do you believe the life-story service-learning project can increase the connection between the elderly and their family / the society?
- To what extent do you believe the life-story service-learning project can increase public's understanding towards the elderly / ethnic minorities?
- In what way(s) do you think the elderly can rediscover their identity / life's value and meaning in their twilight years?
- In what way(s) do you think the public / government can increase the sense of belonging of ethnic minorities to the community?